

Montana Wetland Council - May 30 9:00 am - 4:00 pm, Lewistown, MT – Calvert Hotel.

The next Montana Wetland Council meeting is hitting the road and will meet in the geographic center of the state, Lewistown Montana, on Thursday May 30th.

All are encourage to attend to learn about and discuss Energy Development and Agricultural, Grasslands and Farm Bill Issues Affecting Wetland and Riparian Areas of Eastern and Central Montana and What the West of us can do. Agenda will be finalized and sent in early May. The Montana Wetland Council meets three times a year and is an active network of diverse interests that works cooperatively to conserve and restore Montana's wetland and riparian ecosystems. The May 30 Council meeting will be held in the large banquet room of the Calvert Hotel, they are holding a block of rooms at government rate for May 29 for those traveling - see event below.

Montana Rocky Mountain Chapter of the Society of Wetland Scientists Speaker Series - May 29 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm, Lewistown, MT – Calvert Hotel.

Come join the Rocky Mountain Chapter of the Society of Wetland Scientists 3rd meeting in a series of presentations and discussions on wetlands. The goal of the series is to provide thought-provoking presentations and a discussion forum for wetland issues and projects in Montana that are relevant to those working, studying, or otherwise interested in wetlands. Each meeting in the series consists of three 20-minute presentations followed by a social hour. The presentations will include one from each of three general themes: regulatory/government, research/academia, and special interest. Free appetizers will be served. Details on presenters will be finalized soon.